Welcome to The University of Texas at El Paso, a vibrant doctoral research university of nearly 24,000 undergraduate and graduate students enrolled in 166 degree programs!

Set against the backdrop of the Franklin Mountains in the Chihuahuan Desert, UTEP is located at the heart of the U.S.-Mexico border in one of the largest binational communities in the world. The University maintains one of the lowest out-of-pocket costs of any doctoral research university in the U.S., underscoring its commitment to make education accessible to all. Rigorous programs and research opportunities help prepare students to make significant contributions to their professions, their communities and the world.

UTEP's award-winning, sustainably designed campus landscape and unique Bhutanese architecture create an energizing and tranquil oasis in the bustling El Paso-Juárez metroplex. Whether students live on campus or in the community, opportunities abound to become involved with student organizations, community service and research, and experience study abroad opportunities, internships, Division I athletics and dozens of cultural and entertainment activities.
