Go Miners!

Welcome to The University of Texas at El Paso (UTEP), a vibrant public research university of more than 25,000 students enrolled in 172 undergraduate and graduate degree programs.

Set against the backdrop of the Franklin Mountains in the Chihuahuan Desert, UTEP is located at the heart of the U.S.-Mexico border in one of the largest binational communities in the world. UTEP is committed to making education accessible to all. Rigorous programs and research opportunities help prepare students to make significant contributions to their professions, their communities and the world.

UTEP’s award-winning, sustainably designed campus landscape and unique Bhutanese architecture create an energizing and tranquil oasis in the bustling El Paso-Juárez metroplex. Whether students live on campus or in the community, opportunities abound to become involved with student organizations, research, community service, internships, study abroad, student employment, Division I athletics and dozens of cultural and entertainment activities.

• Longest-serving president of a research university in the country
• Named one of the 100 most influential people in the world (Time, 2016)
• Named among the top 50 world leaders (Fortune, 2017)

UTEP PRESIDENT DIANA NATALICIO
Students enter UTEP with many talents, great strengths and big dreams. The UTEP Edge – the cross-campus culture of student success and empowerment – develops these assets through high-impact experiences made possible by the expertise and dedication of faculty, staff, alumni and community partners.

Ranging from undergraduate research and civic engagement to study abroad and student employment, these experiences increase confidence, enhance personal and professional skills, and equip students with a competitive advantage when they graduate and enter the workforce or pursue a graduate degree.

It’s this competitive edge that distinguishes UTEP students from their peers at other institutions and prepares them for leadership and lifelong success.
